

Maggie Morris, B. A. Education, CPDT - KA, CBA I & II
Dog Trainer Consultant

Growing up in Phoenix, Arizona, rescuing animals was obviously in Maggie's future, considering the several homeless cats she'd brought home from a local golf course.

Her first career encompassed coaching and teaching tennis, from ages 4 through 94, as well as coaching Women's Tennis Teams at Indiana University & West Point.

She has spent the past few decades in the dog walking trenches in Sonoma. Maggie is passionate about polite walking and coaching dogs owners to build better relationships between people and their pups.

After spending decades primarily walking dogs, Maggie has become focused in dog training consultations and teaching dog classes to share the knowledge she's gained over her years of work.

Maggie shares her home with a Persian Kitty named Snowman and her deaf Labrador, Nugget.

At Pets Lifeline Maggie teaches Family Dog 1 Intensive Class and a Tricks Class.
